Session 2

9:00am – 10:00am

Title: Will Massachusetts Meet the Next Era of "Health Reform" in 2024?

Presenter: Emily Dulong is the Massachusetts Health and Hospital Association's Vice President of Government Advocacy and Public Policy. She has been with the organization since January of 2018 and oversees state and federal policy efforts that affect MHA's member hospitals and the health of the patients and communities they serve. Full bio can be found here.

Summary: The presentation will cover the Massachusetts health policy reform landscape (prior efforts, where we are now, and potential changes over the next year after a decade without a comprehensive healthcare law), MHA's 2023-2024 legislative agenda and priorities, and opportunities for health information technology improvements through the state legislative process.

Objectives:

- Offer background on the state legislative process and previous major state health reform laws
- Share MHA's priorities for this current state legislative session and what we expect will be up for consideration
- Provide info on prior health information technology reforms and potential opportunities to build upon them

Session 3

10:00am – 11:00am

Title: Advancing Health Equity: Navigating Cost Containment and Affordability

Presenter: David Seltz is the first Executive Director of the Massachusetts Health Policy Commission (HPC). The HPC is a first-in-the-nation independent state government agency charged with bending the health care cost curve and providing data-driven policy recommendations regarding health care delivery and payment system reform. The HPC's goal is better health and better care – at a lower cost – for all residents across the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Summary: David Seltz, Executive Director of the Massachusetts Health Policy Commission (HPC), will present Advancing Health Equity: Navigating Cost Containment and Affordability. The HPC is a first-in-the-nation independent state agency charged with monitoring health care spending growth in Massachusetts and providing data-driven policy recommendations regarding health care delivery and payment system reform. The HPC's mission is to advance a more transparent, accountable, and equitable health care system through its independent policy leadership and innovative investment programs aimed at addressing persistent health disparities.
