

MEMBERSHIP

Are you looking for a cost-effective way to keep your employees current, support their professional development, and demonstrate your commitment to your team?

Provide them with membership in the American Health Information Management Association® (AHIMA®)— the leading authority in health information (HI)—and unlock many benefits for them and for your organization.

Content

AHIMA content keeps our members informed about the latest regulatory updates, compliance priorities, cybersecurity threats, and data-management best practices. AHIMA resources, educational offerings, and certifications will improve your team's knowledge and skill, which typically inspires increased proficiency and productivity, enhanced employee engagement, and a boost in morale.

Community

AHIMA serves as a strong advocate for the HI profession and health system transformation. By supporting AHIMA membership, organizations contribute to the collective voice of the industry, ensuring that our perspectives are prominent in public policy discussions. This collective representation protects your interests and is shaping the future of healthcare.

Career

MEMBERSHIP

Supporting your employees through AHIMA membership is an investment in their development and career advancement. It also conveys your commitment to professional excellence and adherence to industry standards. This affiliation can enhance your reputation, build trust with stakeholders, and differentiate the organization in a competitive healthcare ecosystem.

Plus Savings: While many products, services, and educational offerings are included with membership dues, members also receive discounts on exams, recertification fees, event registrations, publications, products, and more. Enough to cover the cost of membership! And we offer group discounts.

AHIMA membership is a powerful retention tool and an attractive perk for recruitment. Don't miss out on the opportunity to invest in your staff and elevate your organization's performance. If you aren't already covering the cost of your staff's membership and certification, please consider doing so today!
