Honoring Past MaHIMA Board Members: Enhancing Member Engagement Through Mentorship

In Memory of Sheila Callahan

I was still a teenager when I met Sheila on my first NU Co-op job at Tufts. Little did I know when I met Sheila that she would offer me my first HIM Management position after graduation. Sheila was not only a visionary leader but also a compassionate guide who inspired countless individuals to reach for their dreams. She once told me that she had over sixty co-op students come through her department, and I know she kept tabs on most. Read more...

In Memory of Robin Andrews

Rachel Alves, the mother of Robin's grandchildren, began her journey in the Health Information Management (HIM) profession at a young age, and it was profoundly shaped by Robin Andrews, who would later play a pivotal role in her career and life. At just 12 years old, Rachel met Robin, who owned her own HIM business. Robin took Rachel under her wing, introducing her to the field by having her assist with data entry and abstracting, eventually teaching her the ropes of medical coding. Read more
